Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—That is the procedure I know.

Sri R. M. PATIL.—That is the meaning.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—Are Government aware that in other States, the scales of pay for this cadre are far higher than what is existing in our State?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—Not far higher. They are something higher.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—Will Government consider the desirability of making the scales of pay for this cadre uniform, so that the best men may be attracted to Mysore State?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—I am so sorry. If the financial position in the State improve,s steps will be taken.

Sri T. SUBRAMANYA.—How long are these posts vacant?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—These vacancies are there for the last one year.

Sri J. VENKATAPPA.—Will the Government be pleased to give the number of dispensaries managed by the Medical Department and the number managed by the Public Health Department separately—under two separate heads.

Sri R. M. PATIL.—It is again a matter of detail. I want time for that.

Sri T. SUBRAMANYA.—According to the Hon'ble Minister, the posts have been vacant for the last one year. When was the Public Service Commission informed to fill up the vacancies?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—Some time in the month of September. Because the constitution of the Public Service Commission was a little bit late. Specifications had to be given. So it required some time.

(d) whether any of those recruited by the A.D.P.H. personally are related to him or to the Assistant Superintendent of the Institute and whether all of them are duly qualified and medically fit?

Sri B. R. SUNTHANKAR.—May I bring to the notice of the Hon'ble Speaker that the question has been altered? I had asked for information just prior to the Reorganisation and not after.

Mr. SPEAKER.—How can Government give the information prior to Reorganisation? Even if it occurs at the time of Reorganisation, it naturally comes after Re-organisation.

Sri B. R. SUNTHANKAR.—Just at the time of Re-organisation.....

Mr. SPEAKER.—Any information can be given which occurs after Reorganisation and not before Reorganisation.

Sri B. R. SUNTHANKAR—May I know how the vacancies occurred on account of transfers? When were transfers made?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—I cannot say now. It was before 1st November 1956 by the Bombay Government.

Sri B. R. SUNTHANKAR.—May I know the exact date ?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—Prior to 1st November 1956.

Sri N. O. SAMAJI [Marathi translated].—On account of what reasons ?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—The Bombay Government did it for reasons best known to them.

Sri B. R. SUNTHANKAR.—Why four vacancies were filled through the employment exchange ?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—Out of the list that was given by the Exchange, only five were taken, because the rest of the candidates were not suitable and as regards four, another list was called, and five were present, of which four were recruited.

Sri T. SUBRAMANYA.—Were these transfers voluntary ?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—That may be one of the reasons. I cannot say that.

Sri B. R. SUNTHANKAR.—May I know whether the employment exchange had any objection to this procedure ?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—Not exactly objection. But they asked.
